From the Pastor

The Grateful Giver

"Do good with what you have, or it will do you no good."

William Penn

"God has given us two hands — one to receive with and the other to give with. We are not cisterns made for hoarding — we are channels made for sharing."

Billy Graham

"Christian giving is God's divine plan to make us like himself; it reveals our souls."

Warren Denison

These and a hundred similar quotations about the Christian's obligation to give generously and sacrificially are well known to me. I have read and shared them dozens of times.

Yet I still ponder and marvel at how hard it is for some of us to be radical givers and sharers. As one person once said, "I have to take care of myself and my family first."

Indeed. Really. Is THAT in the Bible?

So I would simply remind myself and all of us that giving is God's idea. For God gave first — our creation, our bodies and souls, and Jesus.

My personal giving is really just a response to how I feel about God. Yours, too.

Please think deeply about this important matter as, together, we at Trinity plan for 2018.

For as the Bible has said, GOD LOVES A CHEERFUL GIVER.

Together in Christ's service,

Frank

Savor Suppers

Savor Suppers are opportunities for women to gather for faith-filled fellowship, a simple meal and rich conversation. Something beautiful and significant happens when women gather and share something of themselves in small gatherings. It gives each one a chance to be seen, be heard and be known in ways that are sometimes hard in our world today. It gives women a chance to connect with other women at a different level than is possible in a weekend worship service. It expands and deepens women's circles of Christian fellowship, support and encouragement.

The next Savor Suppers are:

- November 8th Allamuchy at 6 p.m.
- November 9th Blairstown at 6 p.m.
- November 10th Great Meadows at 6 p.m.

If you'd like more information or you would like to host a Savor Supper, please contact Pastor Deb De Vos at ddevos@catchthespirit.org or 908-852-3020, ext. 17.

Robert Cole

In our sanctuary is a white marble plaque in memory of Robert Cole. He died 100 years ago. Those who lived with him so appreciated his contributions to Trinity that they erected that plaque. May it inspire you so that when you see it, you'll want to give to your church the way Robert Cole did.

Trinity's HELP Ministry

Each week, we give out some of our health equipment that is available for loan. Each week, someone stops by and gives us some equipment they no longer need. Items such as walkers, crutches, bathroom equipment and wheelchairs are available through our Health Equipment Loaner Program: HELP. Pass the word and help us help others through this important free ministry.

Trinity Servants Honored

We thank God for the faithful service of Tony Albanese and Peter Smith who go to Newark each Friday night to Northern State Prison. There, they teach a disciple class to inmates on becoming a responsible Christian man. Now, they've been thanked by others. Peter and Tony were recently honored by the N.J. Department of Corrections as its Volunteers of the Year in a ceremony at Northern State. We're grateful to God for Peter's and Tony's faithfulness for the past two years.

God in Many Faces

"Violence begets violence. Incivility begets incivility. Hate begets hate. From escalations in international disputes to generations of grinding oppression, the truth of these words is demonstrated over and over again. Yet, as Christians, we are called to interrupt this pattern and transform it.

When some hear the word nonviolence, they may mistakenly equate it with passivity. But true, active nonviolence requires a daily engagement of discipline, faith, compassion and love. United Methodists, in following Wesley's admonition to "do no harm," join with other Christians around the world in heeding Jesus' call to lay down our swords and be peacemakers. Though the principles of nonviolence are derived from the wisdom of the world's religious traditions, no tradition owns nonviolence. These principles include:

- Just means lead to just ends.
- We are not reducible to the evil we commit.
- Nonviolence seeks to defeat injustice, not people.
- Nonviolence believes the universe is on the side of justice.
- An us versus them mentality is a distortion of reality.

While Jesus rejected violence returned for violence, this did not mean Jesus was in any way passive or that he did not resist. With all that he was and all that he had, he displayed how much more power and purpose it takes to hold back from violence or retaliation than to inflict it."

Rev. Kristin Stoneking, Epworth United Methodist Church, Berkeley, California

UMM Matters

Bill Blaskopf

At our October 14th breakfast, Pastor Anthony led a discussion on what it means to be a Christian Man. It was very informative and many present spoke about the meaningfulness of the discussion to them.

Our November 11th breakfast will feature Dr. Howard Burrell. Dr. Burrell will speak on the topic, "Our Spiritual and Mental Attitudes – Why They Are So Important to the Quality of the Life We Live." Dr. Burrell is a veteran of the Air Force and will be helping the UMM in our annual recognizing and thanking the veterans within our congregation. If you're a veteran, please plan on attending this breakfast.

December 9th, we'll have our own Mike Galley leading us in a celebration of Advent through the singing of Christmas carols. Whether you can sing or not, this will be a joyous celebration.

We continue to make plans for our February 10th breakfast. Bishop John Schol will be here. The breakfast will be held at the Centenary University dining hall. We're inviting all the churches in our Skylands District to attend, so once the registration forms are available, please sign up early. Finally, please remember, UMM is not just for men. We invite all members of Trinity to attend. Part of our goal is to provide a sense of community, a meaningful presentation and a fantastic breakfast.

Creation Care

A Thanksgiving Prayer of Gratitude for Creation

God of the universe, we thank you for your many good gifts. For the beauty of creation and its rich and varied fruits, for clean water and fresh air, for food and shelter, animals and plants.

Forgive us for the times we have taken the earth's resources for granted and wasted what you have given us. Transform our hearts and minds so that we would learn to care and share, to touch the earth with gentleness and with love, respecting all living things.

We pray for all those who suffer as a result of our waste, greed and indifference, and we pray that the day would come when everyone has enough food and clean water.

Help us to respect the rights of all people and all species and help us to willingly share your gifts today and always. Amen.

Fiona Murdoch, Eco-Congregation Ireland

We'd like to thank everyone who helped in some way during our annual Congregational Food Drive by donating food or the gift of time. Each item that we collected will help a family in need.

We're still in need of donations for the busy holiday season. Please consider donating a turkey or any other foods that can accompany a Thanksgiving dinner, such as instant mashed potatoes, stuffing mix, gravy, canned corn, etc. Approximately 400 complete dinners will be distributed before Thanksgiving.

If you're able, please host a holiday food drive at your place of business, club, school, scout troop or family holiday party. Any and all donations are truly needed and appreciated.

In October, we served 1,231 people (408 families): 386 children, 711 adults, 134 seniors.

Donate to the Pantry on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday,
9 a.m. – 12 noon, or take donations to the church office when it's open.

Thank You

I would like to thank everyone in my Trinity Family for their prayers and support during the loss of my husband, Phil Hawryluk. You all have helped me lift it up to God! Thank you, Dr. Fowler, for providing a special memorial for Phil. It is so special the way that Dr. Fowler's face lights up with love as he talks scripture. The visitors felt his sincere love and have given heartfelt comments on the beauty within our Church. With all my Heart and Soul, I thank you.

Cathy Hawryluk

Your Last Wishes

Recently the Board of Trustees opened a new entrance to our main building with new railings, pavers, bench, signage and an amazing cross. How was it paid for? Most of the money came from financial gifts left to Trinity in the last will and testaments of former Trinity parishioners. And that's how many of our building and facility improvements are accomplished. Have you considered including Trinity in your last will and testament? If not, please consider one of the following:

- ✓ Giving Trinity 10% — a tithe — of your estate.
- ✓ Stating a specific amount in your will for the church.
- ✓ Naming the church as a residual beneficiary.

Other options are available, too. If you need an attorney to talk with about this important step, Dr. Fowler can refer you to one.

Greetings Ministry ~ November 12th

Come to the Greetings Ministry table in Starr Hall on Sunday, November 12th. We have cards, envelopes, stamps and the names of people who need a friendly, caring greeting from Trinity. All YOU need to do is just sit down for a few minutes and write a note of care, compassion and hope. Or you may know someone who would enjoy receiving a greeting. We also want to send mail to service men and women to let them know we remember. Send name and current mailing address for any military folks to Edna Barrier at nebarrier@aol.com or Sue Bernard at bernards1963@aol.com.

The View from Here

This evening I drove down the road to the reservoir, intent on taking some photos of the sunset on the water. The late afternoon light was golden and lit up the trees on both sides of the road. I was wondering if I was too early to get the right image because the sun was still above the top of the mountain.

The road just doesn't appear to rise and fall that much. But when I got to the bridge that crosses the water, the sun had already gone down behind the mountain. Just a bit up the road where I had just come from, the sky was glowing with the sun not yet descending on the mountain. Simple stuff, but I hadn't given much thought to how much a little change of position, how much a little variation on the road I traveled, could affect the outcome of my photographic foray.

Without getting heavily into metaphors, I can't help thinking there are some parallels to life. Small shifts in perspective, or what may seem to be inconsequential events, little changes, can have significant impact. Small acts can make big differences.

Taking the time to listen to someone who you consider to be different than you could yield a change in perspective that leads to mutual acceptance. Doing an act of kindness for someone may become a major turning point in how that person's day is going. A bleak situation may hold within it hope and promise, even when you can't see it at the present moment.

Commitment to the community, the family we call Trinity, falls into this thinking also. Everyone gets to play a part in making this body of Christ come alive in the world. And yes, the ongoing road we travel will rise and fall as we go forward with new opportunities and challenges, as we meet social change and need. But because there are so many of us who are willing to step up and commit our abilities and support and vision and time, we'll be willing and able to embrace change and growth.

Be well and God bless, Carol

Daylight Saving Time ends on November 5th. Turn your clocks back on Saturday, the 4th so you won't be late for church on Sunday!

“Expand our capacity to love and to pray in the midst of all we do not understand and cannot comprehend... Walk with us through our fear, our outrage, and our pain, and enable us, as we are confronted with the fragility of life, to put our trust in you, our Rock and our Refuge.”
